VOLUNTEER PROJECTS

Face Mask Detection - Artificial Intelligence Date period
Collage
Face mask detection is a simple model to detect face masks. Due to COVID-19, there is a need to face mask detection applications in many places like Malls and Theatres for safety. With the development of face mask detection, we can detect if the person is wearing a face mask, and allowing their entry would be of great help to society.
• Will be able detect the person with / without Mask

Skin Cancer Detection System Date period
Collage
In this Proposed System we are using Deep Learning Technology to detect the skin cancer. Convolutional Neural Network is the one of the Technology in Deep Learning. The Convolutional Neural Network is used for classifying the image Processing. In skin cancer there are various types of skin diseases. But, In that Melanoma is one of the most Malignant disease which is being detected in the system respectively.
• At the Final stage it is able to identify the skin cancer type by using dermography images

Home Automation Date period
Collage
This project demonstrates a simple home automation system that allows the user to control it with a wireless device such as a Wi-Fi or Bluetooth enabled mobile phone. The system allows the user to control each of the lights and fans individually.
• It is controlled using Mobile Application
